Sorghum: pathogens the study did not report

North America

Hollow grey rings are localities where nothing unreported was found; filled points carry at least one. Point size is sampling effort, not signal.
Colour and size scales are identical across every crop and continent. One locality holds more than 60 libraries and is drawn at the maximum point size.